A SHOW OF HANDS

A master knifemaker (Gustafsson) and watchmaker (Sjögren) come together to create unique watches with a Scandinavian aesthetic in GoS. Bazaar loves their Sarek Midnight Blue which features asymmetrical curves, a play on texture, and an exclusive dial which changes colour depending on the lighting. This objet d'art is a timepiece to be treasured.

A new discovery, the latest fine jewellery trends, and a bag for every occasion

MEMORY LANE

To mark Hidesign's 40th anniversary, actor Kalki Koechlin has designed a capsule collection for the label. "I looked through the bags in my closet. I had everything from a jhola to a Gucci," says Koechlin, with a laugh. "And that's what we ended up making—a bag for every occasion." Take for instance, the 3am. Available in grey or black with gold straps, the purse is a classic go-to for a night out. At the other end of the spectrum, you have the Freedom, a small, duffel-shaped bag.

It is big enough to fit sunglasses, sunscreen, and a purse, but is still small enough to not overwhelm you.

"Hidesign has evolved from creating masculine silhouettes to expanding its design language to include more feminine cuts. Kalki represents that. Her style ranges from relaxed to glamorous," says Dilip Kapur, founder of the brand.

"The first branded bag I owned was by Hidesign. I took it everywhere," reminisces Koechlin. And that relationship comes full circle with her latest collaboration. ■

RISE AND SHINE

Federica Imperiali, head of new product development at Forevermark, on the latest trends in diamond jewellery. What should we look out for this season? There are two main trends: The colour pink and summer florals. The first is a celebration of femininity and the second includes a selection of flowers. We want to highlight the character of each blossom and the personality of the wearer. Is there a new launch at Forevermark that will particularly resonate with your Indian buyers? Yes, this year we've created a modern take on the traditional mangalsutra. Our version is made of rose gold and diamonds, and can be worn in seven different ways. What is your advice for someone buying diamonds for the first time? They are an emotional purchase so it's important to find one that appeals to your sensibilities. A Forevermark diamond, for example, is conflict-free while being beautiful. To start with, I would say go for a classic solitaire cut because you can wear it multiple times and it will last forever.
